Harbor Springs High School, Harbor Springs, Michigan

Rampage of 1958

FOREWORD

Looking back in the history of football at Harbor Springs we have found that the first recorded football game took place on October 5, 1918. Harbor lost to Boyne City and Charlevoix, but we did win from Petoskey with the big score of 10-0. Since 1918, Harbor has improved very much in football. We have a new stadium called the "Ottawa Indian Stadium" which seats people from all over northern Michigan.

It takes a great deal of practice, hard work, and patience to put a year book out, just as it does to make a good football team. We are proud to present the 1958 Rampage to you completely based on a football game. So, what are we waiting for? Let's get started with the game!

Dedication

MR. WILLIAM WALKER

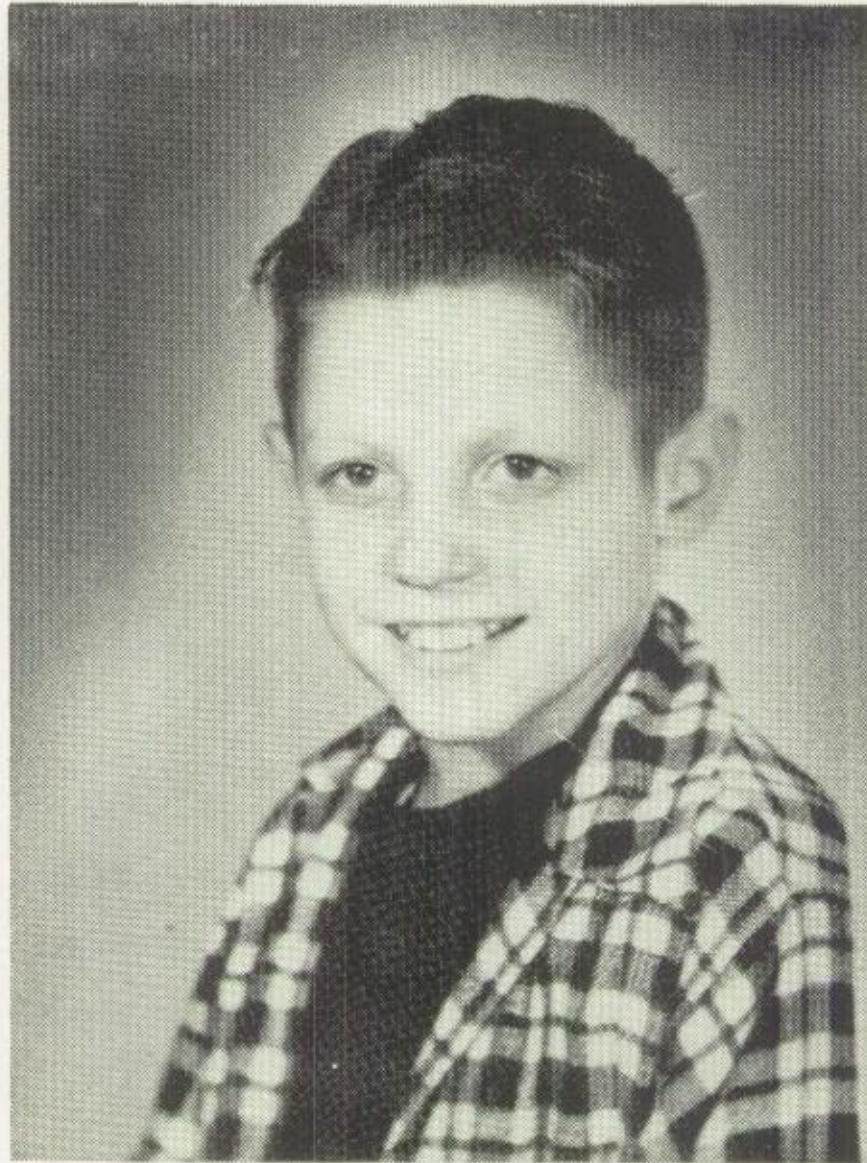

To our principal, Mr. Walker, we respectfully dedicate this yearbook. We wish to thank him for the help he has given his students. He is the athletic director and has helped our cheerleaders and basketball team obtain new uniforms, as well as performing the many routine duties of this job. Mr. Walker is also the advisor of the student council.

Because of all he has done, we would like to award him the highest honor that is in our power to bestow, the dedication of the 1958 RAMPAGE.

Mr. and Mrs. William Walker

Memorial

STANLEY HOWARD TAYLOR

The RAMPAGE staff of nineteen-hundred and fifty-eight wish to pay tribute in this annual to the memory of Stanley Taylor, who on February 14, 1955 went to a far better place than we have ever known.

He started a Bible Christian Club for boys from eight to twelve years of age. He was a cheerful and willing helper, and a good friend to everyone who knew him.

The Excitement of a Night

Virginia Andrews

The time of year we live to behold
While colored leaves of green do fall
On our field and seats so cold.
Seen passing to and fro is our ball
When the sun is setting and nothing more to say,
The wonderful colors are in the west.
Many others do the same; but far away,
So we all will try and do our best.
When hurt and fallen on the grass he doth lie
Others are seen, both tall and strong,
Many stopping to help others passing.
Our end is near, we will not have to wait long.
Each parent and friend watches his son.
Everyone will be glad when the game is won.

Farewell

Mary Belle Tippet

Farewell! Oh, how I hate to go!
I really like you so.
Memories you have given me of
Things that never more will be.
So many things there were to do,
But I must go to something new.
I must say good-bye
To ol' Harbor High,
June brings graduation,
And to all I give congratulations.

So Long

Edith Juilleret

Now's the time-we're bugging out.
All the kids begin to shout,
All the teachers jump with glee,
'Cause June 8 they will be free.
Our laughter will no longer ring,
Our school song we'll no longer sing.
Our presence and our cheers at games
When taken away, they seem so tame.
We will no longer sit in class
And wonder, how long can it last?
The worries and problems of our
High school days
Will soon be fading away in the haze.
To underclassmen we say farewell.
We hope you will survive to tell
How the class of '58 came through,
Their colors flying in the blue.

JANITORS — S. Newman L. Bond, W. Corey, C Hall.

It's a pleasure to bring this game to you.
Let's get underway. There's the whistle!

T. Graham, president; N. Gilbert, vice-president; M. Hahn, secretary; L. Swiss, treasurer; N. Bliss, student council representative.

It's the start of the first quarter.

This is their first football game.

Led by Tom Graham, captain; and Nancy Gilbert, co-captain; we advanced into the field. We realize it is going to be a long, hard journey to our goal. With Mary Hahn keeping track of our progress, meetings and other activities, and Leta Swiss acting as the treasurer, we hope our goal will be easier to reach.

We started the season with a football concession. Then with some good ideas and action, our homecoming float, "Ram the Ramblers", won second prize. With some hard blocking and tackling, we won the magazine campaign. We also had a few bake sales, a booth in the senior carnival, and a basketball concession.

With the help of our great coaches, Miss Manz and Mr. Davis, we had a good year and advanced quite a way toward our goal; but we hope to do even better next year.

It looks as if they'll make it through the first quarter.

J. Hill, President; R. Keller, vice-president; K. Ira, secretary; S. Parrow, treasurer; D. Meeker, student council.

*We've got through the first quarter in fair shape.
We're in the second quarter.*

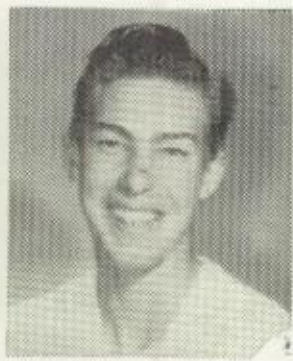

The sophomores played very hard. They have advanced to the fifty yard-line with the help of Jim Hill as captain and Ron Keller as co-captain. They have good records of their progress taken down by Kay Ira, and Steve Parrow is keeping good track of their class earning.

Our kickoff this year was our homecoming float. Our theme was "Grind 'em up". Then we started on our first project, a football concession. We had a few bake sales and another football concession, two basketball concessions, and a booth at the senior carnival.

With the help of our coaches, Miss Kemp and Mr. Beer, we hope to get much farther toward our goal next year.

B. Bernhardt, president; G. Wells, vice-president; A Cole, secretary; R. Niswander, treasurer; R. Rosemeier, student council representative.

The third quarter is under way. They're getting their strength up.

We entered the third quarter of the big game under the leadership of our captain, Bob Bernhardt, and co-captain, Gerald Wells. Ann Cole kept track of our meetings and other activities, with Ronald Niswander as our treasurer.

Our first excitement was caused by the arrival of our class rings. Before we had quite recovered from that, we built a float for the homecoming parade, which won first prize with the motto, "Harbor Will Erupt Tonight."

Soon after, on November 23, we had our Sadie Hawkins Dance, and a little later we sold concessions at the Grayling football game.

During Christmas vacation we had a turkey raffle. During the basketball season, we kicked up a little more yardage with our concessions at the Charlevoix and Grayling games.

Our junior play, HEADIN' FOR A WEDDIN', was presented March 28 and 29. Later, on April 19, we had our Junior-Senior Banquet and then toward the very end of the quarter, we sponsored the J-Hop on May 3.

what they need for a touchdown.

Homer Hollowbone (Ken Garver) finds a pretty girl's picture in a newspaper that is wrapped around some fish. He starts writing to her and has a hard time convincing his family: Paw (Stan Huffman), Maw (Mary Ann Ellwanger), his brother and sisters, Sis (Francis Andrews), Pepper (Gary Ward), Sarah Jo (Rose Mary Sadison), Gracie (Rita Reinwand), and Fannie Jane (Rosemary Van Baarle), that it isn't Bertha Blairhouse (Velda Peterson) he is writing to. Bertha's mother, Widder Blairhouse (Anna Cole), as well as her daughter, wants to marry a Hollowbone. She tries to get Grandpappy (George Coveyou) to marry her.

Melissa Dugan (Bonnie Bliss), the girl Homer has been writing to, surprises everyone by coming up into the hills to marry him. Her friends, Isabell (Doris Smith) and Hortense Todd (Carol Brown) were lost in a storm on their way there and Melissa accidentally stumbled onto the Hollowbone house, looking for help.

Grandpappy goes out to find the two Todd sisters and when they return, Homer has a hard time trying to keep Melissa from finding out who he really is. She does, however, and the plays ends with Homer going back to the city with Melissa to get an education.

P. Graham, president; J. Meyer, vice-president; S. Terpening, secretary; D. Miller, treasurer; M. Tippet, student council representative.

We're in the final quarter.

The team's final quarter was played by seniors. Our top players were Pete Graham, captain; Jack Meyer, co-captain; with Sharon Terpening keeping track of our progress, meetings, and class activities; and Donna Miller as treasurer. Our fine coaches were Mr. Ruonavaara and Miss Corey. Many members helped, while some sat on the bench and watched the others.

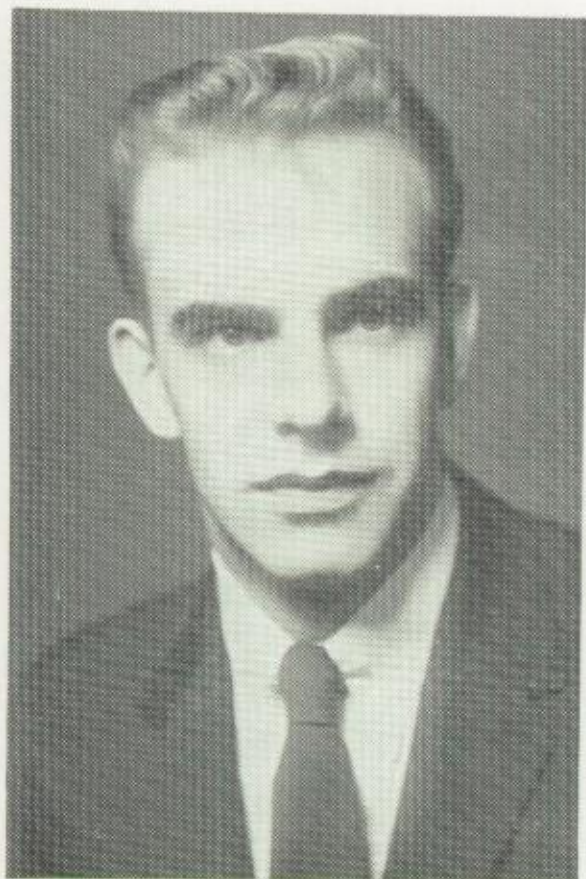

In the fall we picked the color of our gowns for the "kick off". The girls chose white robes with gray tassels. The boys chose charcoal gray robes with white tassels.

Our team made progress at the homecoming concessions and dance. We had fun working on our class float, "Victory is Brewing". We dodged around selling stationary, Christmas cards, mums, and pom poms. We had a doughnut sale the first Saturday of each month. February 22 we had a pie sale.

We had time out from hard playing to study the playbook, NO BOYS ALLOWED.

We went back into the game with the basketball concessions and senior carnival. We were very excited planning for our biggest event of years, our trip to New York.

At last we made the final step, "touchdown toward the future"; and our kick-off, graduation, June 8, 1958.

to make touchdowns in future games

Some join a wonderful club where everyone is welcome.

A float, "Kick-off with Christ", was entered in the homecoming parade. A huge white football revolved on a mound of ground hemlock. As it revolved, one read from the football, "Kick off With Christ". The float won third prize in the parade.

The Christian Youth Club meets on Thursday of each week, at which time we sing songs, have quizzes, and play many different games. Also we have had speakers from various churches in the area to deliver messages from God's Word.

The annual Christmas sliding party was held at the home of Mr. Walter Cole. The C. Y. C. alumni, as well as our present members, joined for a wonderful time of sliding and refreshments, followed by devotions.

The officers are: president, David Halter; vice-president, Anna Cole; secretary, Virginia Halter; and publicity chairman, Barbara Wagenschutz. The sponsors are Mr. Lyle Hoover and Mrs. Kenneth Shinn.

They work hard putting out the yearbook.

The journalism class worked hard to try to give to the students a bigger and better yearbook than ever before, but also had fun publishing the RAMPAGE. Selling address labels and candy to raise funds for the RAMPAGE was part of our job.

We hope this 1958 RAMPAGE will serve as a memorandum to the seniors, a history of the school year, and will publicize the school and its activities.

To Miss Corey, our adviser, Mr. Paul Versepout of the Emmet County Graphic, and Mr. Virgil Haynes, our photographer, we would like to say, "Thanks."

The RAMS' ROUNDUP was published by the journalism class, consisting of juniors and seniors, with the assistance of Miss Corey. Members of the RAMS' ROUNDUP staff made and sold programs for the homecoming game.

Editor-in-chief, Sharon Terpening, assisted by other editors and members of the journalism class, put out some very fine papers. We, as a member of the National Scholastic Press Association, received a third class honor rating for the first semester.

We exchange papers with twenty-seven other schools, through our exchange editor, Shirley Greenier. From these papers we learned many interesting things about other schools, and their school papers.

On Friday, April 18 we attended the North Central Michigan Scholastic Press Conference at Central Michigan College in Mount Pleasant.

Throughout the year we have sold popcorn and made welcome signs for the football games. Also we have sold Christmas trees, light bulbs, and garden seeds.

We entered two teams in the F.F.A. District contests held in Petoskey. The Demonstration Team received a silver award. The Farm Forum Team received a bronze award for third place.

Dan Johnston and Bob Bernhardt represented our chapter at Michigan State University where the state convention was held March 22-26.

An annual affair was the F.F.A. Banquet which parents and members attended. At this time outstanding F.F.A. members received recognition for their work.

They're rated the top . . .

Under the direction of Mr. Jezisek, the senior band began their activities in September with their performances at the football games. Our first show was "Childhood Memories" at the Onaway game. The band led the homecoming parade and put on "The Marriage Show" at the half. Our next show was "Sports Calendar" at the East Jordan game. Then we performed our Halloween Show at the Grayling game. Our last show was "Frontier Days" at the Gaylord game.

The band presented its annual winter concert on December 19 in the high school gym.

On February 15 we attended the Class C Winter Festival at Petoskey. We received a "2" rating.

The band presented a concert for the P.T.A. on April 17.

39 Onaway 0
26 Gaylord 13
15 Mancelona 13

0 Boyne City 26
50 Pellston 6
6 Charlevoix 8

This year the Rams had a fine team, winning six and losing two games. They lost the homecoming game to Boyne City, which was rated number one in the state. They also lost to Charlevoix on an extremely cold night with the wind and hail blowing 40 m.p.h.

But the Rams had a successful season, capturing second place in the conference.

Their backing was great, with large crowds at all the games. The boys showed fine sportsmanship and played good ball throughout the season.

The Rams placed seven players on the conference teams with two getting on the first team, three on the second, and two with honorable mention. The players are Jack Meyer, Rich Clarke, Harold Marshall, Bob Lauer, Pete Graham, Bill Juilleret, and Dean Barnefiher. Pete Graham made the all-state team at guard.

Coach Charles Paige, and his pretty wife Barbara, happily show excited fans the Regional Trophy. Won when the Harbor team trounced Traverse City St. Francis 63-47 to win the Class C regional crown.

This is the team in action.

The J. V.'s, under Coach Davis, didn't have a very successfull season, but learned the fundamentals of the game and got valuable experience for next year.

We had a five game schedule, but could only play three because of the Asiatic flu that bothered all the teams this year.

Our schedule was:

Harbor Springs—6
 Harbor Springs—7
 Harbor Springs—6
 Harbor Springs
 Harbor Springs

East Jordan—32
 Pellston—21
 Boyne City—36
 Mancelona—Cancelled
 Gaylord—Cancelled

Some of these players will be playing varsity ball next fall: Jim Hill, Francis Lauer, Art Myers, Ken Backus, Rod Backus, Tom Burns, Roger Gretka, Roger Lasley, Norm Terpening, Pat Bernhardt, Jim Bonter, Jerry Brown, Tom Cassidy, Jan Coveyou, Nick Stringer, and Ward Verseput.

QUEEN AND COURT—(L. to R.) J. Heinz; N. Gilbert; Queen, R. Reinwand; L. Bennington.

Look at the lovely queen, her charming court, and the prize winning float.

HOMECOMING

This year we had as our charming queen, Rita Reinwand, junior. Her attractive court consisted of Linda Bennington, Joanne Heinz, and Nancy Gilbert.

The juniors received top honors with their float, "Harbor Will Erupt Tonight". The queen and her court led the parade, followed by floats, the Harbor Springs bands, and the Boyne City band. Boyne City beat Harbor Springs 26-0.

JUNIOR FLOAT: "HARBOR WILL ERUPT TONIGHT"—W. Hahn, G. Moulton, B. Fowler.

This year we had two seniors as varsity cheerleaders, Linda Bennington and Doris Hoffman; also two juniors, Velda Peterson and Rita Reinwand. Linda has been on the varsity for three years. This was Doris's first year. This was also Rita's first year, and Velda's second.

We practiced every Thursday night or whenever we could get together. Our thanks go to the Athletic Department for buying our new cheerleading skirts and also to Miss Andrews, our sponsor, for putting in her time and effort to help us cheer better. All helped to make up new motions and yells, and to lead our team to victory.

They really keep the fans cheering at the games.

The junior varsity cheerleaders are Judy Moulton, Leta Swiss, Carol Gokee, Nancy Gilbert, and Sue Garver; four freshmen and one sophomore. The girls cheered at their first game, homecoming, and at most of the pep meetings. They also cheered at the tournaments for the first time. They bought their own sweaters for the basketball season and have done well in their cheering. They practiced after school whenever possible. They would like to express their appreciation to Miss Andrews for helping them with the cheers and at the games.

The Ram Rooters have done a fine job for our school. They have decorated the goal posts during the football season and served cocoa and sandwiches to our and the visiting team after the football and basketball games. We have had many compliments for doing this, from our school and from the visiting schools. In December we had a Christmas cookie sale.

The officers for the Ram Rooters are: Bonnie Bliss, president; Velda Peterson, vice president; Mary Belle Tippet, secretary; and Rita Reinwand, treasurer.

The Rams had trouble at the beginning of their first six ball games, but they ended the season in second place with a 12-5 record and losing three games by one point.

The boys were noted for their cool heads and fine sportsmanship on and off the floor. They received many compliments and letters from friends and strangers saying that our sportsmanship and attitude was among the finest they had ever seen.

The Rams placed three men on the All-Conference team: Ken Garver, Pete Graham, and Rich Clarke, also made the third All-State team.

The Little Rams were a very inexperienced team when they began the year. Even though they lost all their games, they gained much experience.

Everyone knows it is hard to play on a losing team. But the boys showed good spirit and fine sportsmanship.

We're sure that in a few years they will have a very fine team.

Second row: R. Lauer, A. Allerding, B. Lauer, D. Barnefiher.

They finished a great season as district and regional champs.

Tournament time was extremely exciting this year with the Rams taking the district championship for the first time in sixteen years. Boyne City beat us twice during the year by one point, but in the district finals the Rams whipped the Ramblers 56-41. Then they went on to be beaten only in the semi-finals by Muskegon Christian.

The fans were wonderful to the team and showed more spirit than even the "A" class schools. After the district tournament, the men teachers received butch hair cuts and the lady teachers dyed their hair red. When we won the Regional, the junior girls tinted their hair silver and the senior girls dyed their hair orange and black.

There were large celebrations in the streets, where a juke box was blaring rock and roll tunes and the old as well as the young danced, yelled, and set off firecrackers until 2 a.m.

The town bought us many steak dinners. There was a huge crowd, two bands, fire engines, and convertibles waiting when we came from Lansing. The fans showed they were still proud of the "Champs of the North: The Rams."

These boys made a real team playing together.

Following the victories which gave the Harbor Rams District and Regional Basketball Tournament titles, the Athletic Association and Harbor Springs businessmen sponsored Victory Dinners for the team, managers and coaches at the Par-4 Club.

REGIONAL BASKETBALL TROPHY—(L. to R.) T. Burns, J. Meyer, R. Clarke, D. Barnefiher, R. Lauer, P. Graham, B. Lauer, K. Garver, A. Allerding, Coach Paige, G. Moulton, S. Gokee.

This great team put Harbor Springs in the headlines.

Rich Clarke, Pete Graham, and Ken Garver were honored at the close of the basketball season by being named to the All-Conference team of the Northern Michigan Class C league.

REGIONAL TOURNAMENT GAME—Harbor vs. T.C. St. Francis: (L. to R.) D. Barnefiher, R. Clarke, P. Graham, K. Garver, A. Allering.

PASSED, BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

Virginia Andrews

Our last glances backward find
Of all the problems we had to face
Memories filled beyond capacity in our minds.
Nothing could ever take their place.
We looked to the older ones so fair;
Now it's younger ones who are a bit shaken
At seeing us standing as if on air,
With all the privileges we have taken.
For some, the biggest thrill is yet to come.
Hard work we did, to see our treasure grow.
Although hard work and studying were not for some,
Many thought it fun, and justly so.
With proud hearts and happy years behind,
Our goals we'll hope to find.
